NATIONAL HEALTH CARE for the HOMELESS COUNCIL

Kathryn is a dynamic clinical leader with more than fifteen years of experience, including nine years working at a premier Federally Qualified Health Center serving individuals experiencing homelessness.

She is a self-starter with a proven ability to manage complicated projects and represent the organization's mission with city officials, funders, and larger health care systems.

Her career expands extensive clinical and supervisory experience; advocacy for federal policies impacting people experiencing homelessness; and a strong track record of working in a team-based environment with colleagues at all levels of organizations.
