

TARA ARMBRUSTER
Executive Director
McKemie Place
Mobile, Alabama

Born and raised in Mobile, Alabama, Mrs. Tara Armbruster graduated from Faith Academy High School and pursued her education through the Alabama Dental Hygiene Program on the campus of the University of Alabama at Birmingham. She received her license as a Registered Dental Hygienist in 1999 and practiced until 2010 when she transitioned into the nonprofit sector.

After co-founding and working as the Assistant Director of Ransom Ministries for 10 years, Mrs. Armbruster accepted the position of Executive Director at McKemie Place, the region's only emergency shelter for homeless women, in February of 2020. Tara served on the Executive Council of the United Way of SouthWest Alabama from 2020 until 2022. She serves as the Vice President of the Board of Directors for the Homeless Coalition of the Alabama Gulf Coast Continuum of Care and is a member of the National Women's Shelter Network Steering Committee.

Her and her husband, Matt, have been married for 19 years and they have 2 daughters that fill their life with love and laughter.
