

KEVIN BYRNE
Chief Executive Officer
Frederick A. DeLuca Foundation
Elisabeth C. DeLuca Foundation
Pompano Beach, FL

With more than three decades of experience in nonprofit and philanthropy, Kevin joined the Frederick A. DeLuca Foundation and the Elisabeth C. DeLuca Foundation as CEO in March 2022.

With the two private family foundations dedicated to inspiring, educating, and preparing pathways to opportunity for more people to achieve their dreams, Kevin leads the foundations' strategic grantmaking and innovative investments to work alongside dedicated organizations supporting children, students, and families from underserved backgrounds.

His career has been dedicated to helping create opportunities for those with few, while focusing on creating transformative program models, developing innovative technology solutions, and finding new approaches to complex social challenges like innovative financing models. His previous experience includes the Michael & Susan Dell Foundation and other community serving national nonprofits and higher education institutions. He has served on multiple nonprofit boards, advisory boards, and gives back to the community through volunteering. Kevin earned a bachelor's in finance and a master's in strategy.
