

MEREDITH DAMBOISE
Chief Quality and Compliance
Officer
New Reach
New Haven, CT

Meredith Damboise is the Chief Quality and Compliance Officer at New Reach, Inc. She joined New Reach in 2013 and has over 26 years of experience in the fields of quality assurance, compliance, contract management, program evaluation, research design, survey design, and statistical analyses. At New Reach, Meredith oversees the collection and analyses of all agency data, serves as the agency's privacy officer, leads corporate compliance and risk assessment activities, and is responsible for ensuring agency adherence to funder and CARF accreditation standards. She is the Greater New Haven representative on Connecticut's statewide HMIS and Data Leadership Committee and is the Greater New Haven representative on the statewide Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) Steering Committee.

Meredith holds a Bachelor's degree in Sociology and a Master's degree in General Experimental Psychology with a focus on quantitative methods, both from the University of Hartford. Meredith has more than 26 years of experience presenting on non-profit programming and program evaluation at statewide and national conferences including the CT Coalition to End Homelessness' Annual Training Institute, the Connecticut National Association of Housing Redevelopment and Officials (CONN-NAHRO), Eastern Sociological Society, Association for Humanist Sociology, Society for the Study of Social Problems, and the American Psychological Society.