

Stephanie Padro has been serving South Florida for over 13 years. She is currently the Deputy Director of Clinical Programs at Lotus House Women's Shelter, a homeless shelter in Miami for women and children.

She has extensive experience in assisting the community through different evidenced based practices and currently provides oversight for adult clinical programs that serve over 500 women and children daily. Stephanie is a Florida Licensed in Marriage and Family Therapist, a Florida Certified Behavioral Case Manager Supervisor, and Marriage and Family and Mental Health Counseling Qualified Supervisor.

STEPHANIE PADRO

Deputy Director of Clinical Programs
Lotus House Women's Shelter
Miami, FL

