

TAYLOR TANNEHILL
Associate General Counsel
Lotus House Women's Shelter
Miami, FL

Taylor Tannehill is the Associate General Counsel for Lotus House Women's Shelter. Taylor was born and raised in Miami and attended Florida International University for both undergraduate studies and law school. While in law school, Taylor participated in the study abroad program in Seville, Spain. She also worked in the FIU Law Community Lawyering Clinic assisting pro bono clients with a variety of legal issues, including drafting wills and advanced directives, and helping parents of adult children with disabilities to begin the guardianship process.

Her rewarding experience in the clinic encouraged her to pursue a career in public interest law. Outside of her work at Lotus House, Taylor also enjoys baking and paddle boarding.

