

Allison/Al Blakeney (they/them) is a care worker, dancer, performance artist, and activist. They currently work as the Assistant Shelter Manager for The Delores Project. Allison supports the Shelter Manager in overseeing the operations, management, and programs of the shelter to ensure the dignity, safety, and support of guests and staff.

Over the past 10 years, Allison has worked in a variety of settings including Food Justice, Anti-Oppression education, DV/IPV education and sheltering, and Homelessness Services. Passionate about belonging, freedom, justice, and joy, they find reprieve in spaces and relationships that lead with those values.
